

BIOENERGY AT MIDDLEBURY

2,100 acres of forest on the Bread Loaf lands are conserved in perpetuity, sequestering carbon each year

COLLEGE LANDS

Instead of fracked gas, Middlebury buys biomethane that is locally produced from food waste and cow manure

BIOMETHANE DIGESTER

Middlebury's biomass plant heats the campus using locally sourced wood instead of fossil fuels

BIOMASS PLANT